

Mike's Job

True or False?

1. Mike works as an accountant for Granville Island.
2. He has his own business.
3. He likes his job because he meets a lot of people and does many different things, but he dislikes the time deadlines.
4. He works forty to one hundred hours a week depending on the time of year.
5. He works from 9:00 to 5:00 most days.
6. A new accountant earns about $50 000 a year.
7. Mike doesn't get benefits because he owns his own business.
8. His main duty is doing income tax work.
9. He got clients through word of mouth and by advertising on TV.
10. He didn't need a resume or a job interview because it was his own business.
11. You need a university degree to do Mike's job, but you can do other kinds of accounting with college training.
12. Mike and Janis are both from London, England.
13. Mike wants to change jobs in the future because he doesn't like having his own business.
14. He wants to be the treasurer of a hockey team because he likes hockey and he likes accounting.