

Miriam's Job

True or False?

1. Miriam works as a cashier in a flower shop.
2. She likes her job because she gets to be creative, but she doesn't like picky customers.
3. She works 8 hours a week at the flower shop and she gets paid $10 per hour.
4. She doesn't get any benefits, but she sometimes gets free flowers.
5. Miriam has worked at the flower shop for about 5 years.
6. Miriam likes her co-workers, but not her boss.
7. Her duties are to help customers, take orders, use the cash register and clean up the store.
8. She applied for many jobs at the same time.
9. She filled out an application form, dropped off a resume and had an interview to get the job.
10. You don't usually need any special training or experience for this job because you can learn on the job.
11. It's good to have experience working with people and to be creative.
12. The most important thing is to have good customer service skills and know the names of the flowers.
13. Miriam often does volunteer work now.
14. Her references for the job were her mother and father.
15. Miriam has always lived in Vancouver.
16. She chose this job because she wanted to become a landscape architect.
17. She wants to continue to work at the flower shop in the future.