Multiculturalism

Canada is a big country with people from many places. These people have different cultures, languages and traditional food. In Canada we live together and share our cultures with other people. We are free to follow our religion, culture and lifestyle, but we must follow the laws and let other people do the same. We must treat others with respect.

Circle a or b _____ are equal in Canada.

- a) only Canadian citizens
- b) people of different cultures, religions and sexual orientations
