

CLB 3 – May Question

Name:

Date:

Basic Freedoms

Canadians can say how they feel about things the government, businesses or other people do. This is called “freedom of speech”. You can say you don’t like things and can join with other people who think the same as you. You can hold signs, walk in the streets together and say what you think. You must do this in a way that doesn’t make it dangerous for you or others. You can not be violent, do damage or illegal things.

Choose a or b

You disagree with the government. You can _____.

_____ a) Protest peacefully    _____ b) Not pay taxes